THE 1884 MEETING TO BE HELD IN DECATUR—OFFICERS ELECTED.

The annual meeting of The Art Union of Central Illinois that has been in session at Jacksonville, adjourned last evening, after deciding to hold the sessions of 1884 in Decatur. The new officers elected are:

President—Mrs. Charles Ridgely, of the Springfield Art Club.

Treasurer—Mrs. W. T. Wells, of the Art Club of Decatur.

Secretary—Mrs. May Latham, of the Lincoln Art Club.

One vice-president, selected from each of the eight Art Clubs in the district, was elected. The vice-presidents representing the Decatur classes are Mrs. B. O. McReynolds and Miss Frances Shellebarger. Mrs. C. E. Roberts and Miss Maude Burrows, of this city, were selected as two members of the committee appointed to select the above officers, and Mrs. J. F. Roach and Mrs. John Sedgwick were chosen members of the committee appointed to revise the constitution.

Mrs. O. Z. Green, of Decatur, read an essay upon "Woman and her Possible Achievements in Art." The Jacksonville Journal, of to-day, gave place to the following epitome of the excellent paper as read by Mrs. Greene:

Demands for woman's culture are becoming every day more urgent. She has in these days greater facilities for education and culture, and her responsibilities are correspondingly great. Woman is acknowledged to be the educator of the nation. It is one of her missions to make the home whatever is good and beautiful. Thoughtful parents are today supplying their children with drawing and painting materials. Amusement is walking hand in hand with education. It is believed that there is now a field for woman in the sphere of the artist. In all our large cities there are now the best of facilities for art culture and ample means for all earnestly desiring to pursue the study. To secure success there must be some innate love of form and beauty, and a nice command of the hand. Woman has done much in art, and will do her best opportunities what can she not do? She is accused of having no originality, but nevertheless a great deal of the most beautiful and excellent and most powerful painting and sketching of the day, and inventions of an extraordinary nature which have gained the admiration of the world are due to woman's genius. Women in general should not be discouraged by the exceptional instances with which the respondent genius of certain more gifted women shines. There is a sure reward for all the worthy work done by every one. This was a most excellent and thoughtful production, and all listened to its reading with feelings of sincere pleasure.

A New "Board or Trade."

Mr. William Keenan, the well-known grain commission merchant, announces that on Monday next he will open a new "board of trade" room in his office over Peddycor, Burrows & Co.'s banking house. The daily markets will be received from Chicago, Toledo, New York and Baltimore, and deals in futures will be taken. The option business will be transacted with Milwaukee, Bodman & Co., commission merchants, with offices at Toledo and Chicago, and Mr. Keenan will act as their Decatur agent. Mr. Keenan is prepared to buy and ship grain in any quantity. The blackboard arrangement will be ready for use about the middle of next week.

LAST evening a number of commercial travelers presented Oscar F. Spaulding, proprietor of the New Downing hotel, with a large aquarium containing several beautiful gold fish. The handsome ornament was informally presented. Mr. S. is an ex-c. m. himself, and has a large number of admiring friends among the "Drummers" on the road.

A Sergeant Under Lincoln.

Mr. Philip Clark, of Clinton, paid us a call to-day. He is on his way home to Southern Illinois, where he bought, in the last few days, several carloads of live stock—cattle, sheep and hogs. He flatters himself with the belief that there are not many men of his age—71 years—who can do as much in the same time. Mr. Clark was the Ordinary Sergeant of the company commanded by Abraham Lincoln in the Black Hawk War. He is an own cousin to the late E. D. Baker, who commanded the Fourth Illinois in the Mexican War, and was afterwards Senator from Oregon, and lost his life at Ball's Bluff in the late war. Clark and Baker were both born in England, and came to America together when they were mere boys, settling in Sangamon county. "Phil," as he is familiarly known, has been a stock man all his life, while Baker became one of the most brilliant orators and able lawyers of his day.

CHARLIE WHEELER's strawberry roan is not entered for the trotting matinee. All reports to that effect are merely the evidences of malice upon the part of those who are afraid that the strawberry roan will get away with the purse at the fall races. It is a fact, however, that Charlie is saving his latest purchase for something worth contending for, and if he can get him used to an oats diet he hopes to be able to make the old sports open his eyes.

OFFICER REYNOLDS, the new night policeman, is an Englishman. He served six years in London as a "fly cop." The other night he got hold of a "pickle" that was a little balky and lung back on the way to the calaboose. The officer became impatient, and finally said: "Come, come man; gather yourself together a bit, or I'll shake you up." The p. d. proceeded at once to "gather himself together."

Two weeks from to-day—then comes the school event of the year, the graduating exercises at the opera house. The Alumni banquet will be served at the St. Nicholas hotel in the evening. The invitations to the same were sent out several days ago.

THE Presbyterian social held at the residence of Mr. D. H. Heilman last night, proved to be a very pleasant affair. The attendance was large. Musical selections on the piano and violin were given by Mrs. J. H. Lewis, James Prentley and Will Lewis.

REVIVAL services at Stapp's Chapel this evening at 8 o'clock. The pastor will preach a short sermon to the young converts. Altar work at the close. All are invited.

New houses are being constructed in all parts of the city. There is one thing about Decatur that is specially noticeable. She is always booming in business and improvements.

THE labor of Prof. Black at the Christian church has ceased for the present. There have been about 70 additions to the church membership.

IN conversation with one of the veteran aldermen this week, a reporter was informed that the question of what sort of sidewalks Decatur would have would probably be decided by the new administration at the meeting of the council next Monday night, or at the regular meeting in June, when a new ordinance would be adopted. The alderman stated that it was admitted that the gravel walks are a nuisance and that the necessity for a new deal must be apparent to all property owners. He was in favor of building brick walks—not too wide and not too near fences—in the central part of the city, and 30-inch plank walks on the outskirts. In his opinion the city should shoulder the responsibility of building the walks, the city paying about one-third of the actual cost of the work and material. "The city," he said, "can buy brick in 50,000 or 75,000 lots, and thousands of feet of necessary lumber at wholesale rates, and thus a supply sufficient to meet the needs of the town will always be on hand. This course I think will meet the approval of all business men and property owners, because in the end it will be cheaper than the old way, when the property owner paid 55 to 60 per cent. of the cost of building sidewalks where brick was laid." There are a large number of non-residents who own property in Decatur who have thus far refused to pay for the brick for walks, and under the new plan, if it is adopted, where it is necessary the city will build the walks and compel the owners of the premises to stand their share of the expense.

To Be Repeated To-Night.

The social and festival given last night in the lecture-room of the 1st M. E. church to raise funds to purchase a new carpet for the audience-room, attracted a great number of people, the crowd being so large that for a time promenade seemed to be out of the question. The infant class room was thrown open to accommodate the company. Refreshments embraced delicate strawberries, nice ice cream, a variety of choice cakes, and lemonade. The ladies of the congregation presided at the four tables, which were crowded all evening; and good sales were made at the flower, confection and photo stands, in charge of blooming young ladies. The admission was 10 cents. W. E. Hubbard and N. E. Adams taking the dimes at the door; refreshment tickets were sold by S. S. Ewing and J. C. Mark; and the door opening into the "curiosity" room, where were shown the Florida alligator, alive and kicking, the Smith relics and a number of ancient papers, was guarded by Joshua Green, who exacted a dime from each person who entered. During the evening the choir sang an anthem, Rev. J. P. Minnitt singing bass. Rev. Dr. Davies, Rev. Musgrove, and a large number of members of other churches were present, exchanging greetings and becoming better acquainted with each other. The gross receipts were $204.

It has been decided to repeat the festival to-night. Mr. Henderson will donate the use of a magic lantern for the occasion and will personally superintend the exhibition of a choice collection of views. Go to-night.

ANOTHER KICKER.

They had more grief in the grand jury room to-day. Another party named "Jack" interested in the Maras, poker room, was interrogated about the alleged den of iniquity, and he refused to answer what he considered leading questions. Foreman Holman waited Jack into the court room before Judge Smith, who ordered the kicker to answer all questions put to him about the place, when he was not actually playing cards himself. This decision was what the witness feared and he objected to it on the grounds that if he answered the questions and told who he saw there when he was not playing, then the grand jury would at once summon those he might name, and they would give in testimony that would convict him and every person that had played cards in the poker room during the past 18 months. The judge replied that it couldn't be helped. He must answer the questions put to him or be committed for contempt. Jack had not obeyed the summons served upon him to appear before the jury forthwith, but the Judge excused him for this seeming contempt because the witness had not had time to get to the city. The witness went back into the jury room, and gave the Judge no more trouble.

The Daily Republican.

In his forthcoming autobiography Thurloew Weed says: "I felt the necessity at an early age of trying to do something for my own support.
My first employment, when about 8 years old, was in blowing a blacksmith's bellows for a Mr. Reeves, who gave me six cents per day, which contributed so much towards the support of the family. I stood upon a box to enable me to reach the handle of the bellows. My next service was in the capacity of a boy-of-all-work, at a tavern in the village of Jefferson, two miles from Catekill, kept by a Capt. Baker, who had, I remember, made a great mistake in exchanging the command of a ship for a tavern. After the sheriff took possession of Capt. Baker's wrecked hotel I got a situation as cabin-boy on board the sloop Kanger. Captain Grant. This gratified a desire I had to see the City of New York. I was then (1800) in my 8th year. I remember, as it were but yesterday, after carrying the small hair trunk of a passenger from Coates Slip to Broad street, finding myself in possession of the first shilling I could call my own. I remember, too, how joyfully I purchased with that shilling three two-penny cakes and three oranges for my brother and sister, how carefully I watched them on the passage back, and how much happiness they conferred."

A final dividend of seven percent is to be paid to the creditors of the collapsed Freedman's Bank of Washington, making the total payment 62 per cent.

Look Here.
There will be an excursion to California with the P. D. & E. Co., B. & O., and the Union and Central Pacific railroads, which will leave Peoria by special train at 4:00 p. m., May 15, 1888, for San Francisco. For rates and particulars apply to agent P. D. & E. R. R. Decatur, or L. A.
Hovey, at P. D. & E. R. R. office, Decatur, Illinois.

What is called the Language Club has been organized in New York.
Its purpose is to encourage sensible, that is, phonetic spelling. That's all very well, but just let a fellow write to his sweetheart: "I luv yu with mi hole hart," says a paragrapher, and he will think from her reply that he mite bet her he ded.

Mr. Thomas Byrne, Excursion Agent, whose office is in J. S. Hand & Co.'s store in Postoffice block, will manage three excursions to Southeastern Kansas and Southwestern Missouri, over the Washburn, P. D. & E. R. R. routes. The trains will leave Decatur on May 15th and May 22nd. See Mr. Byrne for rates. Round trip tickets good for 40 days.

The family of Mrs. Stowe hold her in great reverence. Her little grandson, at the age of 5, swinging on a neighbor's gate, was reproved by his mother, who told him Mr.
Smith would not like it. "I don't care for Mr. Smith," said the child, "nor for his ox, nor for his ass, nor anything that has not good words. I don't know," was the reply; "Grandma Stowe, I s'pose."

They Must Have It.
What? A writing machine. Who? All business men. Why? Because it is needed in their business, and they cannot do without one if they consult their own interests. The Ideal Graph is the only perfect writing machine and J. H.
Durfee is the agent. References: J. T.
Montgomery, Morehouse & Wells, R. En-gers Pratt, Warren & Durfee, Mills Bros. and the machine. Sample machine included with order.

Second hand goods bought and sold unpolished of all kinds done. I am the only upholsterer in Decatur that carries any stock of upholstering goods, come and see me and get prices before going to anyone that has not good goods, or anything else to do first-class work with.
Everything that goes out of my shop is guaranteed. Come and see me when you are in need of anything in my line. All kinds of awnings made and put up. G. P. Hart.
